

RAF IN GREATEST AIR ATTACK

HEAVIEST ATTACK OF AIR IN HISTORY MADE LAST NIGHT

DORTMUND, GERMAN INDUSTRIAL CENTER, GETS 2,000 TONS OF BOMBS

By EDWARD D. BALL
LONDON, May 24.—(AP)—In the greatest air attack in history, the RAF dropped more than 2,000 tons of bombs last night on industrial Dortmund and raided other targets up and down the water-logged Ruhr Valley of Germany.

Scores of four and two-ton bombs and tens of thousands of incendiaries kindled vast blazes in Dortmund, the smoke of which licked angrily into the sky three miles above the city of 500,000.

The weight of explosives loosed last night topped the previous record of more than 1,500 tons dumped May 12 on Duisburg, also in the Ruhr. The importance of Dortmund had increased greatly recently because the saturation bombing of Essen had caused the shifting to Dortmund of many war industries.

The British lost 38 bombers. Returning pilots described the hammer blow as highly successful, although accurate observation was obscured by clouds of smoke and flame.

The raid was carried out in excellent weather.

The magnitude of last night's operations became apparent early in the evening when watchers on the channel coast saw the procession of bombers racing northeast for two hours toward their targets.

Churchill Words Recalled.

It gave life to the words of Winston Churchill before the American congress last week suggesting that Germany and Italy might be bombed out of the war:

"Opinion is divided as to whether the use of air power could, by itself, bring about the collapse of Germany or Italy. The experiment is well worth trying so long as other methods are not excluded. Well, there is certainly no harm in finding out. But, however, that may be, we are all agreed that the damage done to the enemy's war potential is enormous."

Neatly coordinated with the devastation in the Ruhr were powerful new blows against Italy by allied planes based in North Africa and the Middle East. Bombers from the San Giovanni ferry terminal in Italy, leading to besieged Sicily.

The 41st assault on Dortmund last night was the first concerted bombing since Mr. Churchill made his address.

Ruhr Valley Hard Hit.

The Ruhr Valley which cradles a great percentage of Germany's coke and steel industries already was pock marked from one end to the other by previous British raids which have cut sharply into war production. Only a week ago, mine tossing Lancasters breached the great Eder and

JAPANESE BOMBERS ATTACK U. S. NAVAL UNITS NEAR ATTU

TOKYO COMMUNIQUE DECLARES U. S. DESTROYER SUNK, OTHERS DAMAGED

By The Associated Press.

Official announcements from both Washington and Tokyo disclosed today that American forces attacking Attu Island in the opening of North Pacific operations had drawn their first reaction from outside Japanese forces, possibly indicating the beginning of a long-drawn struggle in the Aleutians.

Making their second attack in as many days, 16 Japanese twin-engine bombers were engaged at Attu by U. S. Army Lightnings yesterday and five of the enemy aircraft were shot down, the navy announced two U. S. planes were lost, but one of the pilots was rescued.

At the same time, the Navy announced that Japanese resistance on the island was gradually crumbling, and that some of the enemy pockets had been liquidated.

Fifteen two-engine Japanese bombers unsuccessfully attacked two United States warships aiding the attack on the westernmost Aleutian island held by the enemy, the navy announced yesterday. It gave no details.

VIOLENCE BREAKS OUT MONDAY AMONG RUBBER STRIKERS

MEN SEEKING RETURN TO WORK MET BY SHOULDER-TO-SHOULDER PICKETS

AKRON, O., May 24.—(AP)—Several fist fights broke out today outside the gates of the Goodyear Tire and Rubber Co.'s plant one as workers reporting for the 2 p.m. shift were met by a shoulder-to-shoulder blockade of pickets participating in a war production stoppage of 38,000 CIO workers at Akron's three major rubber companies.

Several thousand persons gathered outside the three main gates at the Goodyear plants. The fights were quelled by others in the crowd and by Goodyear company police.

"These men are not all from Goodyear by any means," declared a company spokesman who declined use of his name. "They're the same bunch that came over from Goodrich and Firestone last night."

The company said "a few" of the 2 p.m. shift passed through the picket line, while several pickets declared no one had gone through the gates.

Mayor Is Hopeful.

Goodyear officials said they were asking Mayor George J. Harter to assign Akron city policemen to duty at the plant. Harter announced earlier, after conferring with leaders of the United Rubber Workers, "It is very hopeful that all workers will be back on the job by tomorrow morning."

The mayor would not elaborate, except to say that he had held discussions with unnamed leaders of the union locals.

ALLIED WARPLANES CONTINUE BLASTING ITALIAN OBJECTIVES

PANTELLERIA ISLAND ATTACKED BY U. S. AND BRITISH BOMBERS

By WILLIAM B. KING.

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS in North Africa, May 24.—(AP)—U. S. medium bombers and fighters attacked Pantelleria three times within five hours yesterday and RAF Wellingtons followed up last night with a block-buster raid on the docks and airfield of that fortified Italian Island, it was announced.

The missions encountered no enemy air opposition.

Delayed reports, however, boosted to 305 the number of Axis planes destroyed in the Mediterranean theater offensive by the Northwest African Air Force, alone in five days against announced losses of 18 aircraft, a ratio of almost 17 for one. In addition, Middle East and Malta squadrons have accounted for at least a dozen other Axis planes in the same period.

Two of the Allied planes were lost yesterday.

A British Beaufighter of the coastal command destroyed two Italian Savoia-Marchetti 79s Saturday night.

It was disclosed also that 10 medium bombers had been destroyed on the ground in a Marauder raid on the Decimomannu air field of Sardinia Friday.

Sardinian targets were blasted again yesterday and a Middle East communiqué disclosed that heavy RAF bombers smashed Saturday night at the ferry terminal of San Giovanni.

Carried Out With Precision.

The Allied bomb shower on Pantelleria, which lies in the center of the Sicilian channel, followed a well-laid pattern. The fighters and bombers carried out their assignments with a precision that left waste and wreckage in their wake.

Highlights of the island's day:

1. P-40 Warhawks attacked coastal gun emplacements.

2. B-25 Mitchells dumped their load of incendiaries on the docks with an accuracy officially described as excellent. Bombs hit a medium-sized supply ship and four

DR. JOE J. TAYLOR, EDITOR OF DALLAS MORNING NEWS, DIES

PHILOSOPHER AND WRITER OF NOTE PASSES IN HIS 73RD. YEAR

DALLAS, May 24.—(AP)—Dr. Joe J. Taylor, 73-year old editor of the Dallas Morning News and one of its more pungent writers, died this morning after a prolonged illness.

Editor Taylor, who attended college just long enough to receive an honorary degree of Doctor of Literature, was regarded in the Southwest as a master of the English language. But in the 39 years he was with the News his chief charm was the fresh, wise styles he contributed to the editorial page.

Dr. Taylor fell ill last year but continued to work until October, when his physician ordered him to bed, where he remained until his death. Funeral arrangements were incomplete.

"I never have tried to take life too seriously," Dr. Taylor was fond of saying, "and I have always had a regular pay-day." This was in the tone of the humorous, philosophical writing he authored for many years under a column called State Press, to which he never signed his name.

He was born in Wilson, N. C., July 13, 1869, and came to Texas with his family in 1884, settled at Clarksville near the old home of John N. Garner. After work on the Clarksville Times he came to Texas, where he rose to supervision of the editorial page. He was married 45 years and had two sons.

MORE FAMILIES EVACUATED AND THOUSANDS MORE ACRES FLOODED

By The Associated Press.

Evacuation of hundreds more families continued today in the flooded Middle West, but officially optimistic reports indicated the spreading waters of the Mississippi, Missouri and Illinois rivers may have at least reached their destructive crests.

However, about 50,000 acres more were in the path of flood waters which collapsed the Wolf Lake levee extending five miles along the Illinois side of the Mississippi south of the town of Wolf Lake and near the confluence of the Big Muddy river.

These waters rushed into the western quarter of Union county, Ill., and were expected to sweep into Alexander county, compelling some 4,500 residents to evacuate.

Fifty amphibian jeeps were on hand to assist residents in an area 20 miles long by five miles wide. Civilian defense officials who first feared the water might rush on to the Ohio river and isolate Cairo, Ill., said later the terror was such that the flood would run off into the Mississippi above Cairo.

At St. Louis the Mississippi held steady at a stage of 38.94 feet to day and the weather bureau said probably that was the crest, highest since 41.39 feet in 1844. The coast guard reported the situation easing on the Missouri and moved additional boats and men to the Mississippi near Wolf Lake.

Another Encouraging Report.

Another encouraging report came from Peoria, Ill., where the swollen Illinois river had dropped .03 of a foot to a 28.79 stage from its high of 28.82, at which it held from 2 p.m. yesterday (Sunday) to about 3 a.m. today.

PERSONAL ENVOY OF PRESIDENT WOULD BUILD NEW CITY NEARBY

By EDDY GILMORE.

MOSCOW, May 24.—(AP)—Joseph E. Davies, honored at a lengthy state dinner given by Premier Stalin last night in the Kremlin, proposed that the Russians not rebuild Stalingrad on its present site but leave the gallant Volga city as a memorial and a lesson to people yet unborn.

The President's personal envoy to Stalin suggested that a new Stalingrad be built five or six miles up or down the Volga from its present ruins.

Davies spoke for 20 minutes and disclosed that he had first made this suggestion to another old friend, Marshal Klement Voroshilov, Davies also made the principal and longest toast of 19 which were drunk in the resplendent gathering in the great room of the Grand Palace of the Kremlin. He sat at Stalin's right at the dinner which lasted 4-1/2 hours.

U. S. ambassador, made one of the most impressive toasts to the friendship and cooperation between the United Nations. He said friendship and cooperation were a two-way affair.

CORSICANA JAYCEES PLAN IMMEDIATE LAUNCHING OF WAR STAMP SALE CAMPAIGN

MANY KILLED AND INJURED IN WRECK CRACK PASSENGER

FOURTEEN LISTED AS DEAD AND EIGHTY-NINE OTHERS HURT

DELAIR, N. J., May 24.—(AP)—A crack Pennsylvania Railroad passenger train, roaring north from Atlantic City to New York with nearly 1300 passengers homeward bound after a week end at three shore, wrecked on a curve in this Southern New Jersey community last night, killing 14 persons and injuring at least 90 others.

At the break of dawn today weary workers gave up the search for more bodies and turned to the task of clearing the right of way, blocked since the crash at 10-08 p. m.

And in two hospitals in Camden, three miles south of Delair, police and railroad officials began the grim task of attempting to identify nine horribly mangled bodies, including those of a mother and child to which she gave birth in the wreck. Both were de-capitated.

Already identified dead were:

C. H. Bohr of New York, conductor on the train.

H. N. Becker of New York, the fireman.

J. Christian M. Horn, Trenton, N. J.

Bennie Schapiro, New York City.

Louis Schapiro, New York City.

The Corsicana Junior Chamber of Commerce will launch immediately an intensive campaign for the purpose of increasing the sale of war stamps in Corsicana and Navarro county, according to announcement Monday by Robert Wheelock and Johnny McKissack, co-chairmen of the drive.

The campaign is in co-operation with a statewide movement sponsored by the Texas Junior Chamber of Commerce at the request of the Treasury Department for the organization to take over the prosecution and sale of War Savings stamps in Texas, it was stated.

Major Project.

The Junior Chambers plan to make this campaign their major project for the remainder of the year, according to the announcement.

Officials of the local Jaycees pointed out that the Treasury Department feels that the sale of War Savings Stamps has been neglected and that a very small per cent of the retail stores have made these stamps available for their customers and employees. It is the desire of the Treasury Department and the local Junior Chamber that every retail merchant in Corsicana and Navarro county offer war stamps for sale, the official said.

Make Stamps Available.

The Jaycees plan to ask all banks to keep a surplus of stamps so that the merchants can secure them easily and all retail stores will be asked to offer the stamps for sale to customers. All industrial plants will be requested to have stamps available for employees when they receive their salaries and all schools will be expected to organize a stamp program at the start of the next school term, it was stated.

A systematic canvass of the business district will be carried

HOUSE OPENED WAY FOR VOTE TUESDAY ANTI-POLL TAX PLAN

ANNUAL BATTLE ON RIGHT OF STATES TO CONTROL VOTERS STARTED

By WILLIAM F. ARBOGAST.

WASHINGTON, May 24.—(AP)—The house opened the way today for a vote tomorrow on anti-poll tax legislation by discharging its rules committee from further consideration of the measure.

The house action came despite a declaration by Rep. Fox (D-Ga.) that the legislation is "a bid for negro support" and the assertion that "if the new deal persists in heaping indignities on the states that have kept alive, there's no telling what might happen."

The legislation would make it unlawful to levy a poll tax as a prerequisite to voting in any election in which a federal office is at stake. Seven southern states, Virginia, Arkansas, Georgia, South Carolina, Mississippi, Alabama and Texas, now charge poll taxes.

Representative Colmer (D-Miss.) earlier charged that the main packing of the legislation came from UMW president John L. Lewis, Earl Browder, head of the communist party in the United States, and "the first lady of the land," a charge denied by representatives Bender (R-Ohio) and Baldwin (R-N.Y.).

The legislation came up today under procedure limiting debate to twenty minutes, ten for each side.

The roll-call vote by which the legislation was forced to the floor was announced by Speaker Rayburn at 2:58 to 110.

The action was in a resolution to bring the bill out of a rules committee pigeon hole.

"At a time when unity is more essential than anything else," the Mississippian said, "we find the sad and sorry spectacle of an issue being brought up 'calculated more for six weeks."

BACCALAUREATE CHS GRADUATING CLASS HELD SUNDAY NIGHT

REV. JARED I. CARTLIDGE, POSTOR FIRST BAPTIST, DELIVERED SERMON

Graduation week for Corsicana High School Senior Class of 1943, numbering 149, began Sunday evening at the school with the annual baccalaureate sermon delivered by the Rev. Jared I. Cartledge, pastor of First Baptist Church.

Speaking on the subject, "Followers of Christ," Rev. Cartledge pointed out how the world foolishly acclaims the leadership of such great people as Joan of Arc, Mussolini, Alexander the Great, Napoleon, and others.

"We do not wish to center our thinking upon the leaders of this world," he stated, "but upon the One and Only, Jesus Christ. The leadership of Jesus is safe and secure. He is the faultless One and the eternal One. He is the One who has been above all leaders of the world, as He has never been convicted by man. He is sinless."

Follow Him in Humility.

"Take your honors in your stride as He did," the speaker advised the graduates. "Follow Him in humility. Be faithful to Him even to death and do not forget your Christian attitude during this time of war. Follow Him in fidelity. Do not forget Christ when you are entering on the battlefield and throughout life, but follow Him always. And remember that 'greater love hath no man.' Follow Him in love."

"You will see victory and you will be the victors. One if you keep faith in Him and follow Him through life," he concluded.

Music for the program was furnished by a selected choir under the direction of Edward French Hearn, accompanied by Mrs. O. W. Holmes at the piano, and Vess J. Taylor, violin.

The musical selection, "Lead On, O King Eternal," by Smart, sung by the congregation standing, was followed with prayer by the Rev. Allen A. Peacock.

The anthem, "Seek Him That Maketh the Seven Stars," by Rogers, was sung by the choir with Mrs. R. N. Elliott as soloist. The Rev. Matthew H. Arnold read the scripture for the evening.

Mrs. Elliott, Harold Blankenship and Edward French Hearn sang solo parts during the anthem, "Art Thou Weary?" by Del Riego, with violin obligato by Vess Taylor.

SECRETARY OF STATE HULL COMMENTS ON END OF COMINTERN

WASHINGTON, May 24.—(AP)—Secretary of State Hull said today Moscow's announcement of dissolution of the communist international would promote greater trust among the allies and contribute very greatly to the cooperation needed for winning the war and post-war undertakings.

Asked at his press conference for comment on the development Hull dictated this, the first official statement from any United States government source:

"The dissolution of the Communist International is welcome news."

"The elimination of that organization from international life and the cessation of the type of activity in which that organization has in time past engaged is certain to promote a greater degree of trust among the United Nations and to contribute very greatly to the wholehearted cooperation necessary for the winning of the war and for successful post-war undertakings."

To a question whether the United States government had in any way influenced the Moscow decision, Hull said he did not care to discuss that at this time.

The White House had no official comment today on Moscow's announcement of dissolution of the Communist International. Presidential Secretary Stephen Early said: "I haven't asked the President or spoken to him about it."

SHARP ACTION NEAR IMPORTANT RUSSIAN BASE IS REPORTED

By EDDY GILMORE.

MOSCOW, May 24.—(AP)—Sharp action flared again in the Sevsk area near the important Russian base at Kursk early today, where 44 German planes were shot down Saturday when the region was attacked by a large formation of fighters and bombers.

Two battalions of German infantry were dispersed and partly annihilated by artillery fire, the midday communiqué of the Soviet information bureau said. Four more nazis planes also were reported down.

Slight overnight improvements in Russian positions in the Kuban area north of Novorossisk and at Lisichansk on the Donets river were reported.

The great aerial warfare and assaults on supplies and communications continued with 315 planes bagged during the week past at a cost of 61 Russian aircraft.

The Germans continued rushing reinforcements to the front in virtually every sector, piling more guns, men and tanks into areas where the summer blows may fall at any time.

Scouting was reported in the Kuban, the Sevsk area, and in the Smolensk area of the Western front.

New activity was reported on the Leningrad front where it was said that about a company of Germans was wiped out, artillery batteries silenced, and block houses and pill boxes destroyed.

DISSOLUTION OF COMMUNIST INTERNATIONAL ONE OF MOST MOMENTOUS WAR DEVELOPMENTS

JOINT CONFERENCE COMMITTEE FAILS TO SETTLE TAX MATTER

ANOTHER MEETING SCHEDULED FOR TUESDAY IN FINAL EFFORT

By DEWITT MACKENZIE.

Moscow's announcement of the dissolution of the communist international, or Comintern, is one of the momentous developments of the war—if it proves to mean what it seems to indicate now.

The Comintern, which was founded in 1919, long ago defined itself as the "general staff of world revolution." That succinctly sums up its original mission—the spreading of communism to other countries by creating revolts against their governments.

The implication in the announcement that Russia has formally disavowed any intention of trying to spread communism by this method. Henceforth communist parties in foreign countries aren't to look to the birthplace of bolshevism for instructions.

Time will be a sure guide to whether the Red Comintern intends to confine its political activities to the home country.

One of the most sensational aspects of this move is that it seems calculated to leave Fuehrer Hitler stranded.

The bond (in theory) between the Axis powers and Japan is their anti-Comintern pact.

The anti-comintern pact was signed by Germany and Japan in 1936, and Italy subscribed to it in 1937. This alliance declared that the Communist International aimed at breaking up all existing states. The Nazi chief has been depending heavily on this propaganda, not only to keep his followers in line but to try to create a split between Russia and the rest of the United Nations.

Berlin and Rome appeared to be flabbergasted when the news broke from Moscow at the weekend.

The Comintern was created as a Communist party institution with the idea of taking advantage of the widespread disorganization of the world.

Democratic members from both houses arranged to meet later in further attempts to agree on a compromise which they might be able to vote through the conference over the objections of the republican supporters of a modified version of the Ruml shipyard legislation passed by the senate.

Republicans were reported to have demanded in today's conference that the issue once again be submitted to the house, which has defeated the Ruml plan three times.

If an attempt to settle senate-house differences over pay-as-you-go tax legislation fails, Senator Walsh (D-Mass.) declared today, congress may be forced to go to work immediately on a new revenue bill to impose substantially higher income rates.

His statement came in the wake of an assertion by Secretary Morgenthau that an additional $45,000,000,000 is needed to pay for the

DORTMUND, GERMAN RAIL AND CANAL HUB, BLASTED TERRIBLY

ALLIED BOMBERS ALSO CONTINUED MEDITERRANEAN ATTACKS

By CARL C. CRANMER.

Associated Press War Editor.

A mighty fleet of RAF bombers made the greatest air attack of history last night, dropping more than 2,000 tons of bombs on the rail and canal hub of hard-hit Dortmund in the German Ruhr less than a week after Prime Minister Churchill had hinted that the allies might try to knock the Reich out of the war with their air power.

While Dortmund, a large portion of which already had been wiped out in a terrific attack May 4 when 1,350 tons of bombs were splashed on the city, shuddered from the impact of this latest blow, other allied bombers maintained their morale-shattering assaults on Italy and her stepping stone islands. The Mediterranean attacks were concentrated on the rocky little island of Pantelleria which Italy has attempted to turn into a Malta, and on San Giovanni, at the toe of the Italian boot.

Ruhr Defenses Beaten Down.

"The strong defenses of the Ruhr were beaten down" in the one thunderous hour of the Dortmund attack, the British air ministry said, and returning pilots who told how the Germans' guns and searchlights faltered and then winked out said the whole city was left blazing and rocking.

Other headlines from the war theaters:

Invasion — Attempting to guard every quarter against an allied invasion that was implied by non-stop bombings in the Mediterranean, German troops have taken garrison posts in Sardinia. It was announced by the German radio.

French — French planes appeared at hand at last. Announcing acceptance in principle of Gen. Henri Giraud's proposals for formation of a central French authority, Gen. Charles De Gaulle's committee disclosed that he was planning to meet the North African commander at Algiers this week.

Aleutians — The Japanese made their second aerial counterattack against Americans at Attu in the Aleutians. Five of the enemy's 16 bombers were shot down, the Navy announced.

China — Semi-official Chinese sources declared the Japanese were making preparations for what appeared to be a large-scale offensive along the Yangtze river and aimed perhaps at Chungking itself.

On Russian Front.

Russia — Active reconnaissance, often the forerunner of large-scale offensive, in four sectors was announced by the Russian press, indicating that violent action might soon burst forth on the long front.

Among the Neutrals — Dispatches from Ankara said Turkey may soon appoint an ambassador to the Greek government in exile, an indication

RENEWED FAITH

It was in a fitting spirit of humility that the British government set aside Sunday, May 16, as a day of prayer and thanksgiving for the Allied victory in North Africa. The British people have endured so much in recent years, and escaped from such great perils, that they must often think of themselves as if they were Israelites in the time of Joshua. And in this connection a bit of Scripture seems timely. It was in the latter years of the great leader, when the Israelites had possessed the land and prospered, and Joshua in his old age feared they were losing their faith. So he warned them, saying:

"If ye forsake the Lord, and serve strange gods, then he will turn and consume you, after that he hath done you good." And the people said unto Joshua, "Nay, but we will serve the Lord." And Joshua said unto the people: "Ye are witnesses against yourselves that ye have chosen you the Lord, to serve him." And they said, "We are witnesses." And Joshua said to them: "Now therefore put away the strange gods which are among you, and incline your hearts unto the Lord God of Israel." And the people replied, "The Lord our God we serve, and his voice will we obey."

This is a time when all the nations fighting to preserve their heritage, or to regain it, need such renewal of faith.

WOMEN, HOLD THAT LINE!

Housewives have had a few days to study the new ceiling prices on foods. Most of them wish they were lower. But all of them view with relief the fact that they need go no higher. From now on inflation is largely in the hands of the home buyer herself.

It is extremely important that no housewife pay more than the ceiling price for any product whose price has been announced. If she does so, she is contributing to inflation. She is not merely paying two cents a pound more for the chickens for Sunday's dinner, but she is encouraging workers everywhere to strike for higher wages, and that means slowing down the war.

So let every housewife read carefully the posted ceiling prices. If any grocer or butcher tries to get her to spend more, he should be reported promptly to the OPA. It will be a rare tradesman who will break the rule. Most of them are honest and doing their best in circumstances of extreme difficulty. They are harassed by paper work which is no part of the trade's normal duty. They have been pulled and hauled by buyer and seller until they are almost beside themselves. The housewife should not make the day's work any harder for them. But in the matter of prices, she should be firm.

Lord Byron's greatest poem dealt successfully with Love, War and Shipwreck, and our real-life heroes are handling at least two of them adequately.

Yes, war's expensive, but 150,000 Nazis will soon be working for Uncle Sam.

The most pressing question in this world today is, "When do we eat?"

Sacrifice, sweat and save.

Who said the books I keep about, then in reply, "Have you, asked I." "Worn all your various friendships out?"

"Have you run all the laughter through, Shared all the heartaches and the tears, Of those you've cherished down the years?"

"Have you no good friend kept Among the number you have gained To whom you'll turn when heart-aches burn? Are all your friendships dried and drained?"

"Of course, I have not read them all, Nor do I know them line by line, But they will be on hand for me I'm sure when need for them is mine."

TOO MUCH MONEY

Ordinarily the big financial problem of this country, or any country, is to get enough money for a decent living. And this is still the main problem for millions of Americans. But the nation as a whole seems now to have too much money for its own good. This is true especially of millions of factory workers who are earning more money than they ever dreamed of before, and of young people who, by their ordinary standards, are reveling in riches.

Most of them do a natural but a dangerous thing—dangerous to them and to the nation. They start buying things, or services, that they have never had before, often things that they don't need at all. And thereby they tend to push up prices just when it is to their advantage, and to the nation's advantage, to hold prices down.

This makes a steady pressure for inflation, which means the puffing up of prices until everything costs more and the benefits are lost. The newly rich lose their gains. And people with fixed incomes, or living on savings, are practically made poor because their money buys less.

This is one of the big national problems now. The remedy is to get money, by tens of billions, out of circulation, so as to keep prices on even keel. The best and safest way to do it is to pay debts and to buy substantial things like homes, bonds and annuities, thereby salting down their gains and getting the loose money out of circulation. That helps everybody.

RUSSIA THAWS

Little by little, the Russian Bear crawls out of her ideological hibernation and proceeds to thaw out. As she gets warmed up, she grows more friendly and realistic, and the outer world—with the exception of Germany—doesn't seem so bad after all.

Joseph Stalin, biggest of dictators if you except Hitler, has really been warming up to a most surprising degree. Nothing so unexpected as his May Day eulogy of Russia's "gallant allies" has come out of Russia for many years. The Russian press, long chilly and suspicious of all foreigners, reflect Stalin's warmth. Allied representatives are welcomed to Moscow and treated with a friendliness never shown before by the Soviets. Some of this geniality may be a sort of back-handed slap at the Poles, in return for too ready acceptance of the Nazi atrocity tale against Russia. But something certainly has happened to Russian officialdom.

Apparently the Russian leaders at last see that Britain and America can be counted on to help in this war without limit, that they accept Russia fully as an ally, that they pool their resources with Russia, and that they will play the game through. As for ideologies, why bring that up now? Such arguments can be resumed, if necessary, when the war is over. The necessity of crushing Hitlerian Germany makes everything else trivial.

Essay Winners Pan-American Round Table

"At School With Our Neighbors" was the timely subject chosen by the Pan-American Round Table in the annual essay contest that has just been concluded in the Corsicana public schools.

Mrs. Wilbur Wright, chairman of the project, has announced the following winners, each of whom was awarded defense stamps as prizes:

High School—Doris Marie Caskey, Junior High School—Andrew McCoolpin, ninth grade; Colleen Wilbur, eighth grade; Robert E. Lee School—Diana DuBoise, fourth grade; Bennett Stokes, fifth grade; Katherine Regester, sixth grade; Jimmy Copeland, seventh grade.

An example of winning essays is the following, which was titled "When Daddy Went to School in Mexico," and written by a fifth grade student.

"When my daddy was a boy, he lived in Mexico, and sometimes he tells me about the things that he and his friends did in school there."

"They go to school at 8 o'clock. They do not have seats like we do. Their desks are locked with a lock. Each one has his key and unlocks his desk every morning. They lift up the top and gets his books."

"They make things and keep them for examination. The teacher goes around and grades each thing."

"When the children do bad things, the teacher has them put a rock in each hand, kneel down with a book in front of them and read interesting examples of their lessons, the teacher do not let you eat until you go home in the evening. When somebody hurts somebody else, they send them to the principal as we do."

"When they are in the third grade, they are taught how to march and hold guns and load ammunition. They go home at 4 o'clock from school. They come out to play at 3 o'clock. Before they go home, they have geography. My daddy's teacher was a lady by the name of Tavita Guerrero."

"The school buildings are made of wood, stone and brick." "The children are taught to play fiddle, guitar, bass fiddles and many other things."

"The children have school supplies like we do, but they have to buy their own blackboards. My daddy says he never was punished. He learned to read and to write in Spanish and to add. He had multiplication tables as we do. He learned in two years."

"He had lots of fun in Mexico, when he was a boy of my age. He says if I were to go to Mexico, I wouldn't want to come back. He liked it better in Mexico than he does here in America. I don't love my country best. I AM AN AMERICAN."

FAIR ASSOCIATION STOCKHOLDERS PLAN EXPOSITION IN FALL

DIRECTORS ELECTED SATURDAY TO MEET TUESDAY ELECT OFFICERS

The Corsicana Livestock and Agricultural Show will sponsor a "Food for Victory Exposition" in September if recommendations of the stockholders, in session Saturday morning at the Chamber of Commerce, are carried out.

It was the unanimous opinion of those attending the meeting that a fair is vital to agriculture—agriculture is vital to food and food is vital to victory and that every effort should be made to make this proposed fall exposition one of the largest in the history of Corsicana and Navarro county. It was recommended that all departments of the show be opened and the dairy, poultry and hog departments be enlarged.

Directors Meet Tuesday. The recommendations of the stockholders will be presented to the board of directors called to meet in special session Saturday, May 25, at 10 a. m., at the Chamber of Commerce.

J. N. Edens, president, presided at the Saturday meeting and Robert G. Dillard, serving as secretary. The president's and auditor's reports, after some discussion, were received and filed upon motion by A. F. Mitchell. It was recommended by the stockholders that an executive committee be appointed to transact all business subject to the approval of the directors.

It was voted to increase the directorate from 15 to 24 members. The constitution was also amended to permit the appointment of a key man from each town in the seven-county area. Most of these men have already been contacted and signified their willingness to serve, it was stated.

Directors Elected. The nominating committee composed of B. Lynn Sanders, A. F. Mitchell and Joe Wolens reported and the following directors were elected:

Three year term: J. N. Edens, J. O. Burke, W. C. Stroube, Ralph R. Brown, Joe E. Butler, O. L. Albritton, Fred D. Prince, Will Thompson.

Two year term: John C. Calhoun, S. J. Miles, E. K. Tate, R. L. Wheeler, A. F. Mitchell, O. M. Rector, F. H. Harvey, J. R. Afton Burke.

One year term: E. D. McCormick, B. Wynne Woolley, Joe Wolens.

Holders for one year term: J. M. Dyer, W. E. McKinney, Fred M. Allison, B. L. Sanders, Lloyd Martin.

The directors will name officers at the Tuesday meeting.

A motion made by J. M. Dyer and seconded by H. M. Montgomery recommending to the directors that the Corsicana Livestock and Agricultural Show be reopened and plans made to stage a 1943 "Food for Victory Exposition" was unanimously voted by the stockholders.

It was pointed out that the show should concentrate on food production with special emphasis on war crops and the various essential war activities with special attention being given to the part the 4-H clubs and FFA Chapters are playing in the war effort.

It was also recommended that in connection with the exposition the best amusement obtainable should be on the midway and that a rodeo measuring up to the past high standards should be the featured attraction each night.

Information From Rationing Board

Primary distributors of gasoline or registering units must discontinue the use of envelopes within which to place their stamps. Navarro county war price and rationing board, Chairman, Wilbur Wright, stated Friday.

All gasoline stamps must be attached to gummed sheets until further notice.

Banks should refuse to accept oil or gas stamps in envelopes after warning the distributor one time.

Some retail stores do not understand that they must give up points to farmers for butter, they buy it from a local government. This matter state that points must be given up by all persons who transfer or deliver butter.

Small producers of butter may secure simplified report sheets for making their statement at the ration office at the end of each month.

The local war price and rationing board is getting an unusually large amount of mail containing applications for canning sugar. Members of the sugar panel at that office are turning out the sugar certificates at a fairly rapid pace.

Capt. Gilcrease Killed in Crash Of Bomber Plane

Capt. James R. Gilcrease, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Gilcrease, 2012 West Third Avenue, killed near Chicago late Thursday when an Army bomber crashed into an illuminating gas tank, was a member of the 1936 graduating class of the Corsicana high school, and attended the University of Texas. He entered the service in 1939 shortly before completing college and received his commission and wings in the U. S. Air Forces at Kelly Field in 1940.

He married Miss Agnes Collier of Houston, Nov. 1, 1940, and besides his wife and parents he is survived by a seventeen months old son, James R. Jr.

Capt. Gilcrease's parents left early Friday for Fort Worth.

Information From Rationing Board

Applications for renewal of supplemental gasoline rations that came up in June are now being accepted at the local war price and rationing board, Wilbur Wright, chairman, stated Saturday.

School teachers will not be barred from taking teaching jobs at higher pay under WMC Regulation No. 4, that "hold the line" order, nor will they impair their regular positions by working during their summer vacation in war plants, agriculture or necessary civilian services, Paul V. McNutt, WMC chairman, said Friday.

Changes will be made in the regulation to permit teachers to change to higher paid teaching positions and to allow them to work during the summer vacation, he said.

To relieve retailers of an "end of the month" buying rush, the Office of Price Administration has extended for one week the time during which blue stamps G, H, and J may be used by consumers.

Instead of expiring May 31, as previously announced, these stamps will be good through June 7. At the same time, OPA announced that blue stamps K, L and M will become valid on Monday, May 24, and will continue good through July 7, according to announcement by Wright.

Beginning June 1, bulk users who receive 960 gallons or more of gasoline a month will be issued gasoline deposit certificates, by their war price and rationing board, instead of bulk ration coupons, local rationing board members stated.

With these certificates the consumer will open a ration banking account against which he may write checks to cover his gasoline purchases. The certificates will cover only that gasoline which is to be transferred into the user's storage tanks. For gasoline he intends to have transferred directly into the fuel tank of his automobile or trucks, he will be issued regular consumer coupons, they pointed out.

Stamp 18 in War Ration Book 1 will become valid June 16, 1943, for the purchase of one pair of shoes. The validity period Stamp No. 18 will be announced about June 1 when production and supply data now being received have been thoroughly considered by all agencies involved, Chairman Wright said.

Visit Here. D. P. Cagle of the Frost Baptist church, were Corsicana visitors Friday morning.

Surviving O'Beirne are his father, C. B. O'Beirne, Dallas, and five sisters.

Funeral rites for O'Beirne were held Saturday afternoon from the First Presbyterian Church in Dallas.

WASHINGTON, May 21.—(AP)—To avert an end-of-the-month buying rush, the office of price administration today extended for one week the expiration date of blue stamps G, H, and J in war ration book No. 2.

Previously scheduled to expire May 31, the three processed foods stamps will be good through June 7.

OPA at the same time made the next three sets of blue stamps—K, L and M—good beginning Monday, May 24, and extending to their expiration date from the end of June to July 7.

Blue stamps G, H and J which have been valid through May, and K, L and M which have been valid during a two-week overlap period from May 24 to June 7.

Food Preservation Demonstration by Miss Vera Sneed

The Food Preservation Demonstration on Thursday morning at 8:30 o'clock at the Third Avenue Presbyterian Church will be part of a series to aid the home front in preparing vitamin-packed foods to offset rationing restrictions. It will also bring valuable information on preserving the bountiful supply of fruits and vegetables now on the market and in the gardens.

Open, No Charge.
The demonstration is open to the public, and no fees will be charged. Advance registration is not required.

Miss Vera Sneed, home demonstration agent of Navarro County, will conduct the demonstration. Those who attend will receive instruction in the most modern, efficient and simple methods of canning, using recipes that "hold out vitamins."

Dehydration Demonstration Later.
If a sufficient number of women are interested, a dehydration demonstration will be given at a later date by Miss Sneed. Miss Sneed feels that it is now up to the American women to dehydrate their own fruits, since the major portion of this year's crop of dried fruits has been reserved for the army.

OFA has designated Stamps No. 15 and 16 in War Ration Book One as canning sugar stamps and they will be valid through Oct. 31, 1943, for five pounds each. Consumers will obtain sugar by taking their ration books to retailers rather than applying to local boards for sugar coupons as announced earlier. At the allowed rate of one pound of sugar to four quarts of finished fruit the 10-pound-per-person allowance would provide 40 quarts of canned fruit. In exceptional cases where consumers require more than the 10 pounds allowed each person, they may apply to local rationing boards. The new order becomes effective May 24.

New Red Stamps Become Valid.

Beginning May 30, four series of red stamps in Ration Book Two will become valid at weekly intervals and will be good through June 30. Red Stamps J, K, L, M, and N expire June 30 and become valid as follows: J, May 23; K, May 30; L, June 6; M, June 13; N, June 20. Red Stamps E, G, and H expire on May 31.

Stamp No. 24 in War Ration Book One, valid on Monday, May 31, will be used by consumers for buying one pound of coffee through Wednesday, June 30, a period of one month instead of five weeks. The improvement in the supply situation made the increased coffee ration possible, OFA announced.

Important Subject Discussed by Currie Demonstration Club

"Menus for Victory—Low Cost" was the featured subject at the Currie Home Demonstration Club meeting May 21 in the home of Mrs. H. B. Albritton.

Two recipes, "Sugarless Pie" by Mrs. Albritton and "New Cheese" by Mrs. J. P. Wilson were given club members. Mrs. Albritton, president, made a fine report on the Navarro County Home Demonstration Club Council meeting here on May 7.

Mrs. Willis D. Gunn became a member of the club, and Miss Marie Michael was a visitor. Those present had a general discussion of war hero Robert Price, who was born in Currie. Mrs. Fred Whitehead read "Application of War Book No. 3" from Corsicana Semi-weekly Light. Miss Donie Abbe was informed of her appointment as recreational leader.

Fruit punch, pimiento cheese sandwiches and novelty memorial plate favors were served by the hostess, Mrs. Joe Pope will be hostess to the club on June 4.

Miss Vera Sneed, county home demonstration agent, will give a talk on "Meat Substitutes."

zation produced by the first world war to establish Communism around the globe by causing a general revolt against established governments. One of the chief exponents of this scheme was the late Leon Trotsky.

Observers hold that most of the suspicion and distrust of Moscow by foreign countries has been due to this fear of Communism being thrust upon them. Now we have this new Red announcement which ostensibly is calculated to remove the distrust and pave the way for unity of view among the Allies, both as regards the war effort and post-war reconstruction.

If things turn out that way it may present another world upheaval after we have finished with Hitler et al. One is reminded of Vice President Wallace's recent sensational statement:

"Unless the western democracies and Russia come to a satisfactory understanding before the war ends, I very much fear that world war No. 3 will be inevitable."

Information From Rationing Board

Navarro county war price and rationing board has now received ceiling price lists for household soaps and cleansers, announced Wilbur Wright, chairman, Monday. Merchants may secure these price lists at the board if they desire.

Stamps No. 15 and 16 are good for five pounds of sugar each and will be valid through October 31. This will take care of people's immediate rationing needs, Wright said.

It is unnecessary for people to make application for more rationing stamps, as the local board has temporarily stopped issuing sugar for rationing purposes. People are advised to use the stamps from their ration books.

This will be sufficient amount of sugar for rationing if people apply to the ration quantity of one pound of sugar for four quarts of canned goods. The ration board will, in some cases, allow a person to get more sugar. But the person must give an accurate account of his use of his allowable sugar before receiving any more for rationing purposes.

Ration restrictions on used passenger car and truck tubes have been removed. Certificates are not needed to get used tubes, Wright stated.

Miller Now Judge Houston Night Court

Cleo G. Miller was appointed judge of the night corporation court by the Houston City Council Monday, according to information received by Corsicana friends this week. The new court was created to facilitate the handling of cases involving defense plant workers and others. Miller recently was appointed assistant city attorney by City Manager John N. Eddy.

Judge Miller served several terms as county and criminal district attorney of Navarro county, but has been a practicing attorney in Houston for the past several years.

Tire and Rubber Co. declared mean while in a newspaper advertisement that the work stoppage "was quite spontaneous" after a war-labor board wage decision, and added:

"An adequate machinery must be set up for the prompt and just settlement of grievances. Knowledge that this has not been done has caused the stoppage. Confidence that it is being done will start production just as quickly again."

Production was resumed today at two rubber plants.

Goodyear Tire & Rubber Co. estimated 16,000 of its workers still were out and the B. F. Goodrich Co. reported 14,000 idle.

William Vaught, secretary-treasurer of the CIO United Rubber Workers' Local at Goodyear, said about 3,000 returned to their jobs today as some union leaders predicted the stoppage would involve an additional 12,000 failed to materialize.

Vaught expressed belief more first-shift workers would have returned at Goodyear had it been known that a picket line, which he said kept 5,000 from entering the plant last night, had been withdrawn.

A Goodyear spokesman said the company's production was low because of an unbalanced working force.

"We're lucky if we can maintain 50 per cent production," he declared. "In fact, our production probably will be down about 80 per cent because the working force is unbalanced."

"While only one man may be missing at one point on the assembly line, there may be 10 missing somewhere back of him."

Union leaders said the workers were protesting a War Labor Board decision granting Goodyear, Goodrich and Firestone employees a three-cent an hour wage increase instead of the eight cents demanded by a special WLB rubber panel.

Members of the General Tire local said their men voted to end the walkout because they were not affected by the WLB decision.

At a meeting late yesterday, Goodyear Union officials urged their members to go back to work.

Some Goodyear unionists predicted that 12,000 more men would join the stoppage today.

Sherman H. Dalrymple, rubber workers' international president, Harlan Trent, head of the Firestone local, and Greely L. Lewis, leader of the Goodyear local, were reported to have scheduled a meeting at Pittsburgh today with CIO President Philip Murray.

In declining to grant an 8-cent increase, the WLB took the position that such a move would destabilize pay levels throughout the industry.

The Union leaders contended they had shown conclusively that the rubber workers had increased 23 per cent since January, 1941.

PACIFIC WAR

by the development of an American offensive in the foggy northern seas between Asia and America, the Japanese made their first effort to come to the assistance of their beleaguered garrison which already was cut into three isolated pieces.

Today the Tokyo radio broadcasting an imperial headquarters communique, claimed that Japanese submarines as well as aircraft had begun counter-operations. It asserted, without confirmation, that a United States destroyer had been sunk and another damaged, two cruisers and a battleship damaged and two additional warships of unspecified type damaged—a total of seven ships.

The communique claimed that the bombers sank the destroyer, badly damaged a cruiser and damaged the other destroyer. The announcement said the planes were from the Japanese navy.

Base of Planes Unknown.
There was no indication as to where the planes operated from, but they may have been sent from Japan's northern navy base at Paramushiro, 630 miles west of Attu in the Japanese Kurile Islands.

Meanwhile Chinese semi-official sources wrote of Japanese preparations for an apparent large-scale offensive up the Yangtze river from Ichang in a possible effort to reach Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek's provisional capital at Chungking. The Central news agency said the equivalent of four or five Japanese divisions were being concentrated at Ichang, 460 miles east of Chungking.

POLL TAX

than anything else to create disunity.

"For God's sake, let's rise one time above political expediency and vote to uphold the integrity of this congress," he snarled, echoing the suggestion of Representative Cox (D-Ga) that the measure was unconstitutional.

"This is merely a bid for negro support," the Georgian asserted, "but the new deal came along with more alluring promises and took him away from you," he said, with a look at the republican side of the aisle.

Warning Issued.
"If the new deal persists in heaping indignities upon the states that have kept it alive, there's no telling what might happen x x x," Cox added.

Representative Manasco (D-Ala) in a speech inserted in the record, said "the communists who are so active in behalf of the anti-poll tax bill x x x are not nearly so anxious to extend voting privileges as they are to replace southern members of congress with members of their own ilk."

Mansco's comment, embodied in a speech prepared for the congressional record, came in the house prepared to vote on whether the rules committee shall be discharged from consideration of the anti-poll tax bill and the measure brought to the floor for a vote.

Without mentioning any sponsors of the bill by name, Mansco labeled the American Communist Party the party that hates everything American and is too red for Stalin, who has just dissolved the Communist Internationale—"as the source of disunion in this country."

Calls It Tripe.
The sponsors, Mansco added, "made the appeal that we must pass it now to show that we are for the Atlantic Charter and to prevent some of our allies from withdrawing from the war."

"Could any intelligent American fall for this tripe?" he asked.

Southern members of the house meanwhile, pinned their hopes on the senate as a second line of defense to block the bill.

Leaders of the southern group contended there was little chance of defeating a move to force a vote on the floor.

Behind the move is a group of northern representatives led by Rep. Marcantonio (Ann. Lab. N.Y.) who contend that the poll tax is a violation of the constitution.

Against them are arrayed representatives of seven southern states: Virginia, North Carolina, Alabama, Georgia, Texas, Mississippi and Arkansas.

Their contention is that the constitution expressly reserves to the states the right to fly the qualifications of electors, and that congress would be exceeding its authority by attempting to lay down statutory qualifications.

Senate Will Stop It

"The legislation will get through the house again," one of the southern leaders declared, "but it will never get out of the senate."

Senators Norris, who helped bring it to the senate floor last year, no longer is there, and Majority Leader Barkley (D-Ky) won't be so anxious to get tangled up in another tax battle such as he went through last year when his leadership of the senate was in jeopardy for a time.

But Marcantonio, unperturbed, said: "We waited too late last year. When the bill finally reached the senate, the session was nearing an end, and a filibuster could be more effective. This year we are moving early and I doubt if anyone in the senate could sustain a filibuster for a year and a half."

AERIAL

The heavy bombers in the British hangars began their record-breaking effort to cripple Germany's war potential a month ago, when more than 600 planes saturated Pilsen and Mannheim. That was the strongest force since the thousand-bomber assaults of last year.

High Price Paid.

The loss of 38 bombers was the highest price paid by the RAF since it spent 56 on Pilsen and Mannheim.

During May the RAF has been over Germany ten nights, four of them in great strength. Berlin has been attacked six times.

The German communiques, broadcast by Berlin and heard by the Associated Press, said "considerable damage to property was caused" by "enemy bomber formations" which dropped numerous explosive and incendiary bombs on Dortmund.

They said that Nazi bombers carried out low level surprise attacks in daylight Sunday on Bournemouth and Hastings, in South England. Last night, the Germans said they raided ship building yards at Sunderland, setting large fires.

Greatest Raid in History.

Not only was the raid the largest on Germany, it was the greatest in history.

As the explosive and fire bombs thumped down on the blazing city the mighty German defenses all but subsided.

One pilot who was among the last to drop his cargo, said: "Single searchlights were waving aimlessly about in the sky as if the defenses could not stand up to the weight of bombs. The flak became so moderate it did not bother us."

Much of the attacking force was Canadian and four of their bombers were among the 38 lost. The air ministry described the attacking force as of "great strength" and the bomb load as "vast."

Dortmund was last attacked the night of May 4, when approximately 1,350 tons of high explosive were tossed on the city.

Resumption of Air Offensive.

The attack marked the resumption of the allied air offensive against Europe after a one-night lull and coincided with a series of German blows at several places on the British northeast coast.

The Germans said the main target of their attacks was the ship-building center of Sunderland. A large portion of Dortmund was reported wiped off the map in the May 4 attack. The city had been hit before as part of general missions, but that was the first raid of which it was the sole target.

Dortmund is a city of about 200,000 population and is situated about 22 miles east of Rotterdam.

In addition to being an important industrial center it is the terminus of a canal leading to Ems. It is the seat of the Dortmund Union, one of the great general combines in Germany and also is the site of a great oil plant.

Five Times Greater.

(By The Associated Press.) London dispatches said the total of more than 2,000 tons of bombs dropped on Dortmund by the RAF in the greatest air attack in history last night was almost five times the amount dropped by the Germans in their greatest raid upon London April 16, 1941, which was calculated at just under 450 tons.

It was eight times the 250 tons of explosives dropped by Nazi airmen upon Coventry Nov. 14, 1940, a raid which killed 300 persons and injured hundreds.

Tenans Are Decorated.

LONDON, May 24.—(P)—Twelve fliers of the United States Army Eighth Air Force have been presented British war decorations by RAF Air Chief Marshal A. T. Harris for "valor and extraordinary achievements" on combat missions, headquarters of the European theater of operations of the United States Army announced today.

Nine distinguished flying crosses and distinguished flying medals were pinned on the tunics by Harris during a "bomber night" ceremony.

for the peace which was to follow victory.

Sir Archibald John Kerr Clark Kerr, British ambassador, in his toast subscribed to Standley's remarks.

The guests witnessed the American motion picture "Mission to Moscow," an adaptation of Davies' own book. The picture was brought to the Soviet Union by Maxim Litvinoff, Russian ambassador to the United States, who has just returned to Moscow.

Witnesses said Stalin—who had an interpreter at his side—appeared to enjoy the film intensely.

There still was no indication of the contents of the president's letter to Stalin and it was unknown how long Davies expected to remain in Moscow before departing with the premier's reply.

(Dispatches from Moscow yesterday made no further references to the dissolution of the Third International, but echoes of the move continued to be heard in Berlin, where propaganda agencies apparently were caught completely off guard.

(Advices from Bern quoted German foreign office sources as saying that the action was a "fraud" and would have no effect on Axis anti-Communist policy. The same sources gave credit for the move to President Roosevelt, hinting that his letter to Stalin was responsible.)

Should Remove Suspicion.

BOSTON, May 24.—(P)—Wendell L. Wilkie says dissolution of the Comintern will remove suspicion that Russia is trying to undermine other countries and will bring cooperation closer.

Describing Stalin as "a doer," Wilkie said in an interview last night that the Russians were "talking about" dissolving the Comintern when he was in that country.

The 1940 republican presidential candidate came to Boston to receive an honorary degree from Boston University.

Wilkie discussed politics and a direct query as to whether he was a candidate for president briefly.

"I wouldn't be frank," he added quickly. "If I didn't say I've thought about it, but I haven't made up my mind."

He said that the next campaign "will be won or lost from Ohio East and on the West Coast."

Reversion to Medieval Methods.

WASHINGTON, May 24.—(P)—Dr. George Burton Hotchkiss, professor of marketing at New York University, told a congressional committee today the substitution of official grades for brands as a guide to buyers, "however logical it may appear in theory, is a reversion to a medieval method that broke in practice."

Hotchkiss was the first of a group of witnesses called for three days of public hearings by a house interstate sub-committee investigating government plans for grade labeling—recently rescinded by OPA—and curtailment of newsprint.

The Turks believe the Greek government eventually will return to its native capital after allied successes.

More than 2,000 tons of bombs blasted Dortmund, menaced only last week by dam-losing raids which sent flood waters roaring down the Ruhr, the air ministry said.

This far exceeded the previous record weight of explosives dropped by the RAF in a single raid when more than 1,500 tons were rained on nearby Duis on the night of May 12.

Thirty-Eight Bombers Lost.
Smoke clouds billowed up 15,000 feet as the hundreds of bombers descended on the city of 500,000 population.

From the giant attack 38 of the RAF's big bombers failed to return. The attack marked resumption of the RAF's mass assaults after an unexplained layoff of several nights of good weather.

It gave point to the statement of prime Minister Churchill before the United States congress last week that an attempt to knock Germany out of the war by bombing "is well worth trying so long as other methods are not excluded."

Last night's attack followed a daylight bombing of the coke ovens at Zeebrugge, Belgium, by the RAF's Venturas and rooftop attacks by German fighter-bombers on towns on England's coast, identified by the Germans as Hastings, Bournemouth and Sunderland.

In Mediterranean.
In the Mediterranean, Pantelleria was under virtually continuous attack, with American medium bombers and fighters over the island three times in five hours yesterday and with the RAF's Wellingtons following up at night with a blockbuster raid.

At least 317 enemy aircraft had been destroyed by allied air forces in the last five days in operations over the Mediterranean and in large-scale efforts to knock out axis air power defending the path to Italy.

In the same period the allies had lost 15 planes.

The communiques from Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower's headquarters said Carlotorte harbor in Sardinia also was attacked, while the RAF's four-engined planes plowed up San Giovanni, across the Straits from Sicily. Other aircraft from the Cairo area swept over the Aegean, dismantling one schooner and damaging others.

Messina Heavily Damaged.
The Italians said Messina in Sicily also was heavily damaged. Similar heavy destruction of enemy aircraft was reported by the Russians, who said in their communiques that 313 German planes had been accounted for last week at a cost of 61 Soviet machines.

Soviet scouting activity to feel out the strength of the enemy was reported in the Kuban area of the Caucasus, the Smolensk area west of Moscow and in the Sevsk area northwest of Kursk.

The Moscow dispatches said the Germans were rushing reinforcements to the front in nearly every sector, preparing for the summer campaigns.

In the battle of the Atlantic, the German high command claimed without confirmation, that submarines had sunk 10 allied ships totaling 55,000 tons.

Ship Sinkings.

By The Associated Press.
Announcement last week of the sinking of three United States merchant ships and a Greek freighter brought to 659 the Associated Press total of announced Allied and neutral merchant losses.

Ships Sunk Off East Coast.
WASHINGTON, May 24.—(P)—A medium-sized Panamanian merchant vessel was sunk off the United States east coast by two underwater explosions early in May, the navy reported today.

The navy said the explosions were presumed to have been caused by torpedoes from an enemy submarine. Survivors have been landed at Norfolk, Va.

"Hitler First"
STOCKHOLM, May 24.—(P)—With the Allied air offensive mounting against Europe, German newspapers are taking the propaganda line that the Allies are ignoring the threat of Japan in adopting a "Hitler first" strategy. The Berlin correspondent of the Svenska Dagbladet reported today.

German Broadcast.
LONDON, May 24.—(P)—The German radio, declaring it was quoting reports in Ankara, Turkey, said today that discussions were in progress in Teheran between Iranian and United States authorities aimed at replacing the Tenth British army in Iran by United States troops.

To Combat Catholic Clergy.
LONDON, May 24.—(P)—The Nazi-controlled Paris radio, in a broadcast recorded by the ministry of information, said today Reichsmarschal Goering had ordered the Germans to combat alleged political activity of the Catholic clergy which he said persisted against the Hitler regime in spite of all efforts of the government to stamp it out.

Mississippi Association Meet.

A called meeting of the executive board of the Mississippi Association for Navarro and adjoining counties, will be held Friday night, May 28, at 8:30 o'clock at the YMCA. It has been announced by O. E. Stone, president.

The Women's Army Auxiliary Corps observed its first anniversary Sunday, May 16. WAAC enrollment has reached the 60,000 mark, more than one-third of the authorized strength of 150,000, which it is hoped will be reached by July 1. WAAC forces are installed at Allied Headquarters in North Africa and in over 100 Army camps, posts and stations in this country. Requests for WAAC for non-combatant jobs from Commanding Generals in overseas units total 18,810; requests from commanding officers of Army units in this country total 500,000 (375,000 from the Air Force alone).

The WAAC is open to all women from 21 to 44 inclusive, who have two years high school education or the equivalent, who are physically fit and mentally alert, who have no children under 14 or other dependents. Above, Auxiliary Martine Celis, typist at the Public Relations Office, at Pine Bluff Arsenal, Arkansas.

small craft, one of which exploded. Warehouses on the south side of the harbor were set afire.

3. B-26 Marauders and bomb-carrying Warhawks struck at the air field, destroying buildings, pitting the disposal area and scoring hits on both sides of the bivouac area.

Took Up Work in Night.
4. The RAF's two-engined Wellington took up the work in the night, dropping two-ton demolition bombs and some lighter explosives on the air field and installations of the harbor area, starting a large fire.

The Lightning raid on Sardinia was carried out by three separate formations which spread havoc with bombs and cannon fire.

A 200-foot coaster was hit by one bomb and three smaller boats were sunk at Carlotorte harbor, at the southwest corner of the island. Other bombs landed in the dock area.

Two islands bounding Carlotorte harbor were attacked. After sprinkling their bombs in the harbor area, Lightnings shot up a factory building on Piena Island and barracks, a gun emplacement and radio office of San Pietro Island, on which the town of Carlotorte is situated.

Center of Target Hit.
A number of bombs landed among buildings in the center of the target area when the Lightnings raided an important zinc works at Iglesias, on Sardinia, 18 miles northeast of Carlotorte. Pantelleria Island, a rocky outing in the channel between Tunisia and Sicily, served as an air and shipping base for the Axis during the North Africa campaign and even before Tunisia fell the Allied air forces gave it heavy punishment and later the Royal Navy stood offshore and threw heavy shells into its harbor.

In yesterday's day attack, B-25 Mitchells and B-26 Marauders, escorted by P-40 Warhawks, found five small vessels in the harbor and scored hits on them and on the Moles.

Wellington bombers followed up with a night attack, starting a large fire after hitting the harbor and the airfield.

RAF Raids Continued.
CAIRO, May 24.—(P)—Heavy RAF bombers smashed at San Giovanni on the toe of the Italian boot Saturday night in a continuation of the allies' unrelenting Mediterranean air offensive.

Bombs burst on railway sidings near ferry berths.

An enemy merchant vessel and several sailing vessels also were attacked Saturday night in the Aegean Sea by long range sweeps against the enemy shifted to Greece.

The damaged merchant vessel was left listing and crews were seen to abandon two of the sailing vessels.

Cannon fire dismantled a schooner laden with fuel drums.

No aircraft were lost either in the San Giovanni raid or in the Aegean Sweeps, the communiques said.
